 100 Book Challenge ***

(2025-26 version)

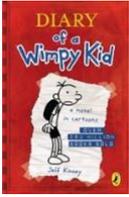

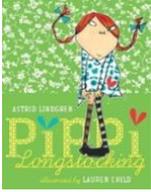

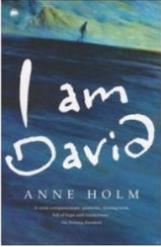

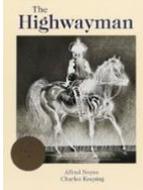

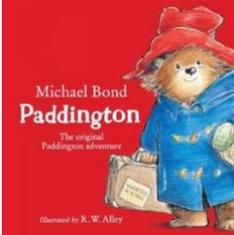

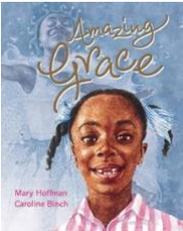

100 books to read before you leave Primary School: a mixture of established and modern classics to entertain, inspire, escape to new worlds, walk in the shoes of others and make you think...

1. 	Journey to Jo'Burg by Beverley Naidoo This is a story of love, commitment and the strength of the human spirit, set against the background of South Africa's apartheid. Frightened that their baby sister will die of starvation, Naledi and Tiro make a brave journey to find their Mma who works as a maid for a wealthy family in the city of Johannesburg.
2. 	The Goldfish Boy by Lisa Thompson 12-year-old Matthew struggles with OCD and watches the world go by from inside his bedroom in Chestnut Close. However, when he becomes the last witness to see a neighbour's toddler, he must turn detective to solve the mystery – despite his personal challenges.
3. 	The Last Bear by Hannah Gold There are no bears left on Bear Island – or so April's father tells her, as he sets off for his Arctic research post. But one summer night, April meets one – endangered, starving, lonely and a long way from home. Can she save him before it's too late?
4. 	Matilda by Roald Dahl Matilda's parents have called her some terrible things, but the truth is that she's the genius and they are the stupid ones! Underestimating Matilda proves to be a big mistake as they and her spiteful and thuggish headmistress, Miss Trunchbull, soon find out when Matilda discovers she has a very special power.
5. 	The Gruffalo by Julia Donaldson “A mouse took a stroll through the deep, dark wood. A fox saw the mouse and the mouse looked good!” Walk further into the deep, dark wood and discover what happened when the quick-thinking mouse comes face-to-face with an owl, a snake and a hungry Gruffalo!

6. 	The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe by C. S. Lewis The Chronicles of Narnia series have enchanted readers for over 70 years... Join Lucy, Peter, Edmund and Susan as they climb through the wardrobe into the magical land of Narnia – a world of eternal winter, witches, talking animals, battles and bravery.
7. 	The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle A much-loved classic, this caterpillar's tale has been bringing joy to millions of readers for decades as they have munched their way through a whole feast of treats. Holes in the pages invite little fingers to nibble their way through the story!
8. 	Clockwork by Phillip Pullman A tormented apprentice clockmaker, a deadly mechanical knight in armour and the sinister Dr Kalmenius... Wind up these characters, fit them into a story on a cold winter's evening and the plot appears to develop in a macabre and unstoppable way – almost like clockwork!
9. 	Dogger by Shirley Hughes When Dave loses his favourite toy, Dogger, he is desolate. Bedtimes are so hard without him. Dogger turns up in an unexpected place, but Dave is going to need his quick-thinking sister to help work out how to get him back in his arms!
10. 	Where The Wild Things Are by Maurice Sendak Max puts on his wolf suit and causes mischief; his mum sends him to his bedroom without supper. A forest begins to grow, and an ocean sails him to 'where the wild things are'. After a rumpus with monsters, when he declares himself King, Max realises he wants to sail back home to where people love him the most.
11. 	When Life Gives You Mangoes by Kereen Getten With rich descriptions of Caribbean islands and life in Jamaica, this story beautifully explores childhood friendships and family secrets. It takes a new girl arriving on the island to awaken Clara's memory of what actually happened last summer...
12. 	Black Beauty by Anna Sewell Black Beauty is born in a beautiful meadow and cared for by gentle humans. But life takes him far from home: from the stable of a gentleman to gruelling work as a cab horse in the city. Where will Black Beauty's journey lead him next and is there any human he can truly trust?

13. 	The Iron Man by Ted Hughes Mankind must put a stop to the dreadful destruction by the Iron Man and set a trap for him, but he cannot be kept down! Then, when a terrible monster from outer space threatens to destroy the planet, it is the Iron Man who finds a way to save the world.
14. 	Flat Stanley by Jeff Brown Stanley Lambchop is an ordinary boy with an extraordinary problem – one night, a giant pinboard fell on him and left him completely flat! After enjoying the benefits and fun of his new predicament, Stanley wonders how he'll ever fill out again.
15. 	Winnie The Pooh by A. A. Milne Winnie the Pooh may be a bear of very little brain, but thanks to his friends Piglet, Eeyore, Tigger and, of course, Christopher Robin, he's never far from an adventure. Pooh gets into a tight place, nearly catches a Woozle and heads off on an 'expotition' to the North Pole with the other animals!
16. 	Funny Bones by Janet and Allan Ahlberg Join the funny antics of a big skeleton, little skeleton and dog skeleton. They venture out from a dark, dark cellar in the hope of finding someone to scare. However, nothing goes to plan as everyone is asleep! Who will they be able to scare in the end?!
17. 	The Hobbit by J.R.R. Tolkien First published in 1937, this is a timeless classic. It tells the story of Bilbo, a peace-loving hobbit, who embarks on a strange and magical adventure. The wizard, Gandalf and a band of dwarves arrive unexpectedly and enlist his services on a dangerous expedition. Bilbo's life will never be the same again!
18. 	Owl Babies by Martin Waddell Three baby owls wake up one night, in a hole in their tree, to find that their mother has gone. They sit and wait, growing anxious, wondering when she will return. The joy of this book is the feeling we get when we are reunited with our loved ones.
19. 	Green Eggs and Ham by Dr Seuss Would you eat a plate of green eggs and ham? Sam-I-Am needs to use all his powers of persuasion to get a grumpy grouch to have a taste. This book teaches us that we cannot know what we like until we've tried it!

20. 	War Horse by Michael Morpurgo In the deadly chaos of the First World War, one horse witnesses the reality of battle from both sides of the trenches. Joey tells a powerful story of the truest friendships surviving in terrible times. He has seen the best and worst of humanity; this is his inspiring story.
21. 	The 100 Mile-per-hour Dog by Jeremy Strong Streaker is no ordinary dog. She is a rocket on four legs with a woof attached, and Trevor has got until the end of the holidays to train her! If he fails, he will lose his bet with horrible Charlie Smugg and something very yucky with frogspawn will happen!
22. 	The Tiger Who Came to Tea by Judith Kerr The doorbell rings just as Sophie and her mummy are sitting down to tea. Who could it possibly be? The last thing they expected was to find a big, furry tiger on the doorstep who is feeling hungry!
23. 	Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson A classic adventure of buccaneers and buried gold. Its influence is enormous on popular perceptions of pirates, treasure maps marked with an 'X', schooners, Black Spot & one-legged seamen with parrots on their shoulders! Yo-ho-ho and a bottle of rum!
24. 	Artemis Fowl by Eoin Colfer Artemis Fowl is the most ingenious 12-year-old criminal mastermind in history. His bold and daring plan is to hold a leprechaun to ransom – but he gets more than he bargained for when he kidnaps Holly Short, the captain of a 'LepRecon' Police Unit that will stop at nothing to get their heroine back!
25. 	Hairy Maclary from Donaldson's Dairy by Lynley Dodd Hairy Maclary sets off for a walk in town. He is soon joined by many of his dog friends... until they come face-to-face with the legendary Scarface Claw, the toughest tom in town! A cumulative, rhyming text matches terrific pictures to tell the story of the chase!
26. 	The Proudest Blue by Ibtihaj Muhammad It's Faizah's first day at school and her sister's first day of Hijab, her head-covering made of a beautiful blue fabric. Not everyone understands the beauty and significance of hijab at first, but these siblings show the importance of listening to your feelings, strong bonds and being proud of who you are.

27. 	Diary of a Wimpy Kid by Jeff Kinney Greg Heffley is thrust into a new year & school where undersize weaklings share corridors with kids who are taller, meaner and already shaving! Recorded in his diary with comic pictures, Greg and sidekick Rowley's friendship develops with hilarious results!
28. 	Pippi Longstocking by Astrid Lindgren Pippi lives in Villa Villekulla with a horse, monkey and a suitcase of gold coins. The grown-ups in her village try to get Pippi to behave in ways that they feel a little girl should behave, but Pippi has other ideas for a fun, free-spirited childhood!
29. 	I Am David by Anne Holm David escapes from the concentration camp where he has spent his entire life and flees across Europe. He is utterly alone and unsure who to trust. We join in his remarkable story, discovering a world he is new to whilst constantly watching out for whether he is being followed. Will he be caught & returned to the camp?
30. 	The Highwayman by Alfred Noyes In this thrilling poem, charged with drama and tension, we ride with the Highwayman and recoil from the terrible fate that befalls him and his sweetheart, Bess, the landlord's daughter.
31. 	Paddington by Michael Bond The classic story of the bear from darkest Peru who arrived at Paddington Station with nothing but a suitcase, a half-empty jar of marmalade and a label that read 'Please look after this bear'. Mr and Mrs Brown discovered him, named him Paddington and welcomed him to their home where he has lived ever since.
32. 	Amazing Grace by Mary Hoffman and Caroline Binch Grace loves to act out stories. Sometimes she plays the leading part, sometimes she is 'a cast of thousands'. When her school decides to perform Peter Pan, Grace is longing to play Peter, but her class tells her that Peter was a boy... and besides, he wasn't black. But Grace's Ma and Nana tell her that she can be anything she wants if she puts her mind to it...
33. 	How To Train Your Dragon by Cressida Cowell Hiccup must lead 10 novices in their initiation into the Hairy Hooligan Tribe. They must train their dragons or be BANISHED forever. Seadragonus Giganticus is stirring and wants to devour every Viking. Can Hiccup save the tribe & become a hero?

A Kind of Spark by Elle McNicoll

“Ever since Ms Murphy told us about the witch trials of centuries ago, I can’t stop thinking about them. Those people weren’t magic – they were different, like me. I’m autistic. I see and hear things that others do not and sometimes I feel things all at once. I understand and want the witches remembered. I believe they have more to their story – just like there is more to mine.”

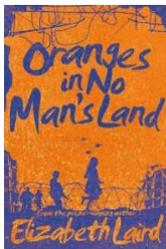

35.
